Internship Application

Office of Congresswoman Louise M. Slaughter

□ Rochester □ Washington, DC

Thank you for your interest in the internship program in the office of Congresswoman Louise Slaughter. We are looking for highly qualified students or recent graduates to serve as interns in her offices in Washington, DC, and Rochester. Interns are an integral part of the team and are given substantial opportunities to learn and grow in a fast-paced and active office.

INTERNSHIPS IN THE WASHINGTON, DC OFFICE

First-hand experience in Congresswoman Slaughter's Washington, DC office will provide interns with an unparalleled knowledge and understanding of the development of public policy and governmental affairs. Intern responsibilities include drafting letters to constituents, attending committee hearings, writing summary briefs, researching various issues for the legislative staff and assisting with additional office duties.

Additionally, interns will receive unique insight into the legislative process and parliamentary procedure as a result of her position as the Ranking Member of the Rules Committee. The Rules Committee determines the parameters of debate for all major legislation before it can be considered on the House Floor, including which amendments can be offered.

The internship provides different opportunities to meet with staff to discuss their experiences on the Hill and future employment strategies. Interns will also have the opportunity to learn more about the executive agencies and some of Washington's most fascinating attractions through office-organized tours.

INTERNSHIPS IN THE DISTRICT OFFICE - ROCHESTER:

Interns in Congresswoman Slaughter's district office will gain an understanding of the constituent services she provides for the residents of her district. The Congresswoman views the delivery of accurate, prompt and precise constituent services as the primary mission for each of her district offices.

The role of an intern, therefore, is an important and critical part of the District Office. It takes a high level of organization, the ability to multi-task, a cool phone temperament, and tremendous amount of flexibility.

Intern responsibilities include drafting letters to constituents and local organizations, ensuring constituent concerns are appropriately addressed by the correct staff member, and assisting with office duties. Additional responsibilities may include assisting district office staff with projects and accompanying staff and the Congresswoman when they go to public events.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

Please submit the completed application along with a cover letter, resume, writing sample and list of three references to your desired location(s).
